Change of scenery in South America

Rio das Pedras resort is located in the heart of the Mata Atlântica, the second largest nature reserve in Brazil. The resort is built in a neocolonial style, and stands as the ideal location for an original tropical adventure and for discovering the treasures of the most diverse forest in the world, including the Iguacu Falls and Ilha Grande Bay, along with its 365 lush islands.

During your memorable stay, you can explore the wonderful Rio with its typical districts, Sugarloaf Mountain and famous beaches, experience Paraty, a preserved 18th century colonial city, and much more.

Rio das Pedras now features a brand new convention centre that is specially designed for your meetings: six rooms with a total capacity of 900 guests in an exotic and friendly environment.
